

THE SOUTHERN ADVOCATE

VOL. 8 NO. 1

MOUND BAYOU, MISS., SATURDAY, OCT. 19 1940

HOME EDITION

"WINGS OVER JORDAN" TO APPEAR IN MOUND BAYOU, FRIDAY NIGHT, OCTOBER 25

"Wings Over Jordan," nationally known singers of Cleveland, Ohio, will appear in person, at Mound Bayou, in the Bolivar County Training School Auditorium, at 7:30 p. m., Friday, October 25, according to announcement by Mayor B. A. Green.

This Choral group is a regular feature, each Sunday morning, over Radio Station WGAR, Cleveland, Ohio, of the Columbia Broadcasting System. It is composed of over 40 male and female voices, and is under the direction of Rev. Glenn T. Settle, the originator and founder, and Worth Cramer, director of Choral Music for Radio Station WGAR, Cleveland, Ohio.

Rev. Settle and other members of "Wings Over Jordan" were guests of the Town of Mound Bayou, during the Founders' Day Celebration in 1938, and the citizens of Mound Bayou are proud to welcome the entire Choral Group to Mound Bayou for this concert.

An invitation is extended by the Town of Mound Bayou, to the general public, to be present at the concert October 25. A small admission charge of only 50c will be made.

The net proceeds from this concert will be used for Town purposes.

The local citizens are requested by the Mayor to get the Town in readiness to welcome these distinguished visitors.

Mr. C. M. Powell was in Yazoo City Wednesday. Mrs. Beatrice Holmes, County Nurse, who has been convalescing at the Afro Hospital there, returned to her home in Shaw with him.

Mrs. Ellen Turner, mother of Mrs. Luella Thurman, died recently in St. Louis. Her funeral will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Christian Church, Powell Bros. Mortuary in charge.

Mr. Edgar Lee Wilson, son of Mr. Craig Wilson, was fatally shot by his wife, Wednesday evening. He died Wednesday night in the hospital at Rosedale. He was buried Friday.

ORIGINATOR

Rev. Glenn T. Settle, originator of "Wings Over Jordan," which will render a concert here October 25.

PROMOTER

Mayor B. A. Green, who is taking the lead in sponsoring the Wings Over Jordan concert.

All Boy Scouts are requested to meet at the Schnol Wednesday night, October 23, at 7:30 o'clock.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN

By T. P. Felder

The Right Reverend S. L. Greene, Sr., Bishop of the Eighth Episcopal Diocese of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, spent several hours in Mound Bayou, Friday completing arrangements for the series of annual conferences which are to be held throughout Mississippi and Louisiana during the next eight weeks.

Mrs. L. M. Nailor was in town Thursday visiting the Daughters of Elks, and making preparations for a benefit party at the Elks Rest.

Mr. Perry A. Smith is the author of the play "Singing Shackles" which is being rehearsed for the Sir Knights and Daughters Annual Session, November 4. Singing Shackles is a strong Drama depicting the struggles of the black man during slavery. The music and drama combine to make a great play.

Mrs. V. L. Carter remains on the sick list.

Mrs. B. F. Hills is out again after a few days' illness.

Mrs. Hattie Powell is visiting in Jackson and Yazoo City.

The Benefit Party given at the Elk's Rest Tuesday night was a jolly affair. Mrs. L. M. Nailor and the Daughters of Elks were the Sponsors. St. Paul M. B. Church, Cleveland received the benefits.

Well dear readers L. M. D. has ordered me to sign off for the school term as she thinks that earning money is getting between me and my algebra. So until I get that promotion card I am saying "adieu kind friends, adieu."

Your N. A. T. Reporter T. P. F.

ROSEDALE, Mississippi

October 18, 1940

Dear Co-Workers:

Let us not forget our pledge in the Consecration Period towards our school, also let us support our contestant, Mrs. Mable Grady, in the State contest.

Your J. M. A. President,
MRS. B. E. WADE